If clients purchase these products through Mr. Kozlowski, he will receive the customary commissions in his separate capacity as a registered representative of First Allied. Additionally, Mr. Kozlowski could be eligible to receive incentive awards such as First Allied may offer. He may also receive 12b-1 fees from mutual funds that pay such fees. The receipt of additional compensation may give Mr. Kozlowski an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your investment needs. Please refer to the Fees and Compensation section and the Client Referrals and Other Compensation section of Lighthouse Wealth Management's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

In addition, Mr. Kozlowski is involved with the following non-investment related activities:

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Mr. Kozlowski has entered into an agreement with First Allied in his individual capacity as a registered representative, whereby First Allied has provided funding in the form of a forgivable loan, for the purpose of establishing and growing his investment advisory business. As part of these agreements, Mr. Kozlowski and our Firm have agreed to use First Allied's brokerage services for commission based products for a period of 6 years. The arrangement allows for Mr. Kozlowski and Lighthouse Wealth Management to use other custodians for advisory related business. These arrangements create a conflict of interest in that Mr. Kozlowski and our firm have a financial incentive to recommend First Allied's brokerage services to our clients. Our clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at First Allied as result of these arrangements. There is no corresponding commitment made by Mr. Kozlowski to First Allied or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the forgivable loan. Please refer to the Fees and Compensation section and the Client Referrals and Other Compensation section of Lighthouse Wealth Management's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.
